Song List

While most bands seem to list every song they can think of whether they know them or not, we prefer to merely list the songs we are asked to play most often. We could have listed over a thousand songs that we know, perhaps including several that you were hoping to find. So if a particular song, band, or style of music isn't listed here, it doesn't mean we don't know it! Let us know what you like, and we'll tailor the set list to you.
